In the reference read above, the Commr. Dept., of AYUSH, A.P. Hyderabad has informed that M/s Kerala Sanjeevani Ayurvedic Centre Hospitals, Multi Speciality Ayurveda, a unit of LIMS Hospitals India Pvt. Ltd., Madhuranagar, Shamshabad has submitted a proposal for accreditation and permission to conduct Panchakarma Therapists training. The proposal is in accordance with guidelines and syllabus and curriculum approved and certified by CCRAS, Government of India, New Delhi. The details of infrastructure staffing pattern and syllabus alongwith the seats in take etc are as per the Norms of the Government of India. At present there is no regulatory structure for the Panchakarma Therapists. If this proposal is agreed to, the candidates who get trained will have employment potential. There is no commitment on part of Government.

2. The Commissioner of AYUSH, has further stated that the institute will be asked to follow communal reservation in force in the state. The institution can be treated as state-wide institution but the fair share principle should be followed in admissions and Government quota for admissions may be finalized by a committee to be constituted by Commissioner, Dept. of AYUSH. He has therefore requested the Government to issue necessary approval to the above said hospital to train the Panchakarma Therapists in Ayurveda which is useful to utilize the trained people for the Panchkarma units in the State of Andhra Pradesh.

Government after careful examination of the matter hereby recognise the M/s. Kerala Sanjeevani Ayurvedic Centre Hospitals, Multi-speciality Ayurveda, a Unit of LIMS Hospitals India Pvt. Ltd., Madhuranagar, Shamshabad for training the Panchakarma Therapists in Ayurveda in the State, subject to following the communal reservations in force in the State.

The Commissioner, Department of AYUSH, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad shall take necessary action and issue further instructions if required in this
